Tinctures

That Honor Tradition
and Elevate Practice

A Griffo bottle is something you'll be proud to hand your patients.

Our flagship line of over 50 TCM tinctures honors the wisdom of traditional Chinese medicine while modernizing the process for superior potency, clarity, and ease of use.

Each formula is crafted with the highest quality herbs—certified organic whenever possible—and extracted using a closed-loop system with local-sourced, organic alcohol. The result is powerful, practitioner-grade medicine: clean, consistent, and ready to support modern clinical care—without compromising on tradition.

Herbal Teas

Small batch teas
that nourish and restore

Griffo teas bring some of Chinese medicine's most popular medicinals in a form your patients will truly savor.

We combine time-honored herbal wisdom with drinkable simplicity to create teas that support digestion, immunity, stress relief, and more. Each blend is thoughtfully crafted with premium ingredients for both therapeutic function and a nourishing, flavorful experience. From the first sip to the last, Griffo teas enhance daily wellness with formulas that are effective, elegant, and easy to love.

Topical Therapies

to Simplify Modern Clinical Care

Griffo's topical line brings time-honored external therapies into modern clinical practice—without the smoke, scent, or mess.

Our offerings include:

- Mox (Balm, Spray & Drops): A smoke-free, scentless moxa alternative for channel warming and Qi movement.
- Aquos: Our newest liniment, designed to soothe tension, promote circulation, and support musculoskeletal recovery.

Whether you're addressing pain, stagnation, or cold, Griffo topicals offer effective, elegant solutions for hands-on care.

NuCare for Women

Formulas for every phase of life

NuCare is our exclusive line of herbal formulas designed to support women through every stage of their cycle and lifecycle.

Rooted in the wisdom of traditional herbalism and refined through decades of clinical insight, NuCare formulas promote hormonal balance, menstrual health, and fertility—helping women feel more at home in their bodies.

Crafted with the same uncompromising Griffo quality, these targeted formulas are made to empower wellbeing and deliver natural, effective support through all phases of womanhood.

Private Labeling & Custom Formulations

With Griffo, you can craft your own branded line of herbal products and give your patients the highest-quality remedies while maintaining a unique and professional brand identity.

Request a private label for our existing formulas, develop a custom formulation, or get expert advice on personalized brands. Our streamlined process ensures transparency, quality, and timely delivery. We work with you every step of the way!

Our Mission:

Herbal Medicine, Evolved

At Griffo Botanicals, we're dedicated to empowering acupuncturists with premium, full-spectrum tinctures that bridge the wisdom of tradition with the precision of modern innovation.

Our formulas are designed to enhance clinical outcomes, support practice growth, and give patients medicine they can trust—and feel.

We Solve Common Practitioner Challenges:

- Time-consuming preparation
- Patient compliance issues
- Limited high-quality products on the market
- Knowledge of Chinese herbs and formulas
- Limited access in geographic areas

Our Roots:

The Story Behind Griffo Botanicals

Griffo Botanicals was founded by Frank Griffo, a licensed acupuncturist and herbalist with over 20 years of clinical experience. Driven by a passion to improve patient outcomes and make herbal medicine more effective and accessible, Frank created a line of powerful tinctures that practitioners could trust—and patients would love.

Based in Petaluma, California, Griffo Botanicals crafts every formula with reverence for tradition, the land, and the people it serves. Each tincture is intensely concentrated, beautifully packaged tinctures are made with the finest seasonal herbs, extracted for potency, and infused with a deep commitment to sustainability, community, and care.

At Griffo Botanicals, this isn't just herbal medicine—it's a way of life.
